

- 1) Variables in JavaScript are weakly typed

True / False

- 2) Consider the following code:

```
var ops = { multiply: function multiplyNumbers(n1, n2) {
    return n1 * n2;
  }
}
```

What is the correct way to call the function which multiplies two numbers?

- a) ops>multiply(2,5)
 - b) ops.multiply(2,5)
 - c) ops.multipleNumbers(2,5)
 - d) ops>multiplyNumbers(2,5)
- 3) Select the functions which can be used on an array (select all that apply)
- a) concat
 - b) join
 - c) map
 - d) push
 - e) add
- 4) What is the syntax to access the value of a second argument in the JavaScript console?
- a) arguments[1]
 - b) arguments[0]
 - c) arguments[2]

- 1) False
- 2) b
- 3) a, b, ,c ,d
- 4) a